

What Your Grandparents Didn't Know About Cancer - Resources

Resources

Genetics

- FORCE website:
<https://www.facingourrisk.org>
- Find a Genetic Counselor:
<https://bit.ly/3ZCo6Ef>
- FORCE page on genes:
<https://bit.ly/force-genes>
- GINA laws:
<https://bit.ly/force-gina-law>
- CDC Bring Your Brave Campaign
<bit.ly/cdc-bring-your-brave>

Screening & Prevention

- FORCE risk management by cancer
<https://bit.ly/force-screening-prevention>
- FORCE screening and prevention research
<bit.ly/force-research-prevention>
- SPOT HER campaign
<https://www.spotherforec.com/>

Sharing Information with Relatives

- The Genes Between Us
<bit.ly/force-genes-between-us>
- Let's Talk: CDC Guide to Sharing
<bit.ly/45dsj44>
- Reverse the Curse:
<https://bit.ly/force-reverse-curse>

You can take action.

- Talk about health history with your family.
- Know your risk! Talk to your doctor about genetic testing.
- Follow cancer screening guidelines.
- FORCE and other organizations have resources to help families understand hereditary cancer and make decisions about their care.
- Visit FORCE for up-to-date information:
<https://www.facingourrisk.org>

Connect with us

 www.FacingOurRisk.org

 866-266-RISK

 Info@FacingOurRisk.Org

